Mission Statement

The Miss Kaysville-Fruit Heights Pageant offers scholarships and learning experiences to the young women of our communities. Although somebody will take home a crown, all contestants are beautiful, talented, and deserving of such a title. As a committee, we hope to see each young woman grow from her experience. We encourage friendship, good sportsmanship, learning, and laughter. Workshops are designed to teach each contestant how to be her best for the pageant and for future opportunities. We hope that through participating, each young woman comes away with a sense of self confidence and having learned skills that will help her continue to achieve her dreams.

Areas of Competition

Miss

Interview	25%
Talent	35%
Evening Wear	20%
Swimsuit	15%
Onstage Question	5%

The interview is one of the most important aspects of the competition. Contestants will meet individually and privately with the panel of judges. As soon as the contestant enters the room, the judges will begin asking questions. This lasts for 9 minutes and 30 seconds, at which time the contestant will have 30 seconds to close with a statement. It is important to close the interview with something interesting about yourself. It is also vital that you practice with the list of possible questions given at the interview workshop.

The talent competition will take place onstage the night of the pageant. Talents must only be 2 minutes long; there are no exceptions. Most any talent can be performed, but remember that it must be a live talent, so no slideshows or videotapes of a previous performance may be used. Any accompaniment must be prerecorded; no live accompanists are allowed.

The evening wear competition is about confidence and poise. You can win in most any dress; it does not have to cost $1,000. People have won pageants in $20 dresses from Ross.

The swimsuit competition is used to measure a contestant's physical fitness and health. This does not mean that you must weigh 90 pounds to win. Being at a healthy weight for your body type is the goal. You may wear a one- or two-piece swimsuit in any color or style. The competition will take place onstage the night of the pageant in front of an audience.

The onstage question will be similar to the interview, only it occurs in front of an audience and it is shorter. You will be asked one or two questions by the M.C. We will provide you with a list of possible questions so you can practice.

Teen

Private Interview	30%
Talent	35%
Lifestyle & Fitness	10%
Evening Gown	15%
Onstage question	5%
Scholastic Achievement	5%

The interview is the same as the Miss competition, except it is only 8 minutes long. After this time, contestants will have a chance to give a closing statement.

The talent competition is also the same. Contestants will have 2 minutes to perform and must have prerecorded accompaniment. Also, the talent must be performed live.

In lifestyle and fitness, the contestants will model an outfit that represents the way they like to get exercise. Contestants can wear anything from a basketball uniform or a cheerleader's outfit to a golf outfit complete with the club or a tennis uniform with the racket. This competition is a way for teens to show the judges their personality and also to show the audience the way they love to stay active. Contestants are NOT allowed to wear a swimsuit or any outfit resembling a swimsuit. Therefore, no gymnastic uniforms or dance leotards, unless used with tights and a skirt.

The evening wear competition is a way to show the judges confidence, poise, and elegance onstage. Your dress does not need to cost a lot of money in order for you to do well.

The onstage question will be combined with the evening gown competition. Toward the end of modeling your gown, you will stop at a microphone and answer one question in order to give the judges and audience a sense of your ability to speak in public and on your feet.

Scholastic achievement will be measured simply by your GPA. You must turn in your transcripts for this competition.

Paperwork

What's Due and Deadlines

Miss and Teen

All paperwork is due, without exception, on July 25, 2009. Turn it in at the workshop or at Emily's home (271 East 1500 South in Kaysville) by 9:00 p.m. It is important that your paperwork be in by this date to ensure that the judges get their copies of it as soon as possible. This ensures you, as contestants, more thorough interviews and fair consideration.

Most of the paperwork is on the website www.misskaysvillefruitheights.com. Under the "Contestant" heading, click on "Forms (Applications)." The contract, expectations contract, and website contract will be emailed to you. Use the following as a checklist for what you must turn in:

- Talent Application
- Sponsor Information & Money ($75) (due August 8 along with any full-page ads)
- Resume (create your own from the format on the website; turn in 6 copies)
- Platform Statement (create your own from the format on the website; turn in 6 copies)
- Music Licensing (if you need it)
- Music CD (if applicable)
- Contract (this must be notarized)
- Expectations Contract
- School Transcripts (teens only)
- Website Responsibility Contract (teens only)

Please read through all contracts and paperwork carefully so you fully understand the terms and conditions should you win the title of Miss Kaysville-Fruit Heights 2009 or Miss Kaysville-Fruit Heights Outstanding Teen 2009 or become an attendant. If you have any questions, feel free to call Emily.

Photographs

Photographs must be taken by July 18 by Paige Davis. The cost is $30 and this covers the wallet-sized photos for the judges' books and also one 8x10 that will be displayed in the lobby on pageant night. You will be able to keep this 8x10 and the wallets that are not given to the judges.

Sponsor Requirement

Each contestant should obtain a $75 sponsorship for the pageant. You can ask local businesses, friends, extended family, or your parents to sponsor you. If sponsors donate $150, they will receive a full-page ad in our program book. You are welcome to bring in as many donations as possible. It is best to bring the donation in yourself, rather than counting on the business to mail it in. Sponsorship money is due by August 8, 2009.

Children's Miracle Network Miss Contestants Only

The Miss America program has partnered with the Children's Miracle Network, a charity for children's hospitals that is headquartered here in Salt Lake City. As part of this partnership, each local contestant is required to raise $100 in donations for this charity.

Do not feel overwhelmed by this task. It is as simple as going to www.missamerica4kids.org. Click on the blue button at the bottom of the home page that says, "New Contestants (click here)." Complete the Profile Information (Name, Fundraising Goal, Create User ID and Password). After completing the Profile, click save and it will take you to a page where you can enter in email addresses of family and friends. (Don't forget to ask them to forward it to their family and friends!) Once you have finished sending the emails, track your results to see if you are reaching your goal. You can return to the website and enter your personal account with your User ID and Password.

You will be surprised how quickly you can raise $100. This is required by the Miss America organization, and contestants will not be allowed to compete if they do not fulfill this requirement.

Ticket Sales / Posters

All contestants need to help sell tickets to promote the pageant. This is a good opportunity for contestants to invite their family and friends. Tickets cost $8. Carie will keep track of ticket sales. Please collect tickets from her and give her any money that you earn along with leftover tickets. You will be responsible for the cost of tickets not returned.

Contestants also need to help hang posters advertising the pageant. We will hand these out at one of the workshops. We ask that everyone hang at least three, one at their work, one at their sponsor's business, and one at their parents' business. If you want to hang more, you can.

State Pageants

The winner of Miss Kaysville-Fruit Heights 2009 will be eligible to compete at the Miss Utah pageant in the summer of 2010. The costs associated with this include fees for the hotel, tribute page, and a little miss. The approximate cost is $800. It will be the titleholder's responsibility to find a little miss and make sure her family or the titleholder can pay for her participation. The titleholder is welcome to find sponsors to help pay for expenses. The titleholder will also be required to attend workshops sponsored by the state pageant committee. Emily will work closely with the winner on preparing for the Miss Utah pageant. More information can be found on the website at www.missutahpageant.org.

The winner of Miss Kaysville-Fruit Heights Outstanding Teen 2009 pageant will compete at the state pageant on October 2 and 3, 2009, in Provo. The first workshop will be held on August 29 in Lehi from 9:00 a.m. to noon. All of the paperwork, photos, and music will be due then, so if you win the local title, you must be prepared to work with Emily immediately to prepare for the state pageant. The approximate cost is $400. The titleholder will be responsible for these fees. The titleholder is welcome to find sponsors to help pay for expenses. Emily will work closely with the winner on preparing for the state pageant. More information can be found on www.missuoteen.com.

Hostesses

Each contestant will need somebody to help them get ready for the pageant during dress rehearsal and the night of the pageant. Each girl should pick one person to do this job for them, preferably a good friend or family member. In the past, contestants have used aunts, friends, sisters, family friends, or even young women leaders. We discourage contestants from using their mothers because we want the moms to be in the audience enjoying their daughters' performances. Your hostess should know how to do hair and makeup and be willing to zip up your clothes and keep track of your wardrobe. A hostess should be prepared with bobby pins, safety pins, hairspray, and hugs! Please find somebody you trust to come to dress rehearsal and the pageant with you.
