

Expectations of Teen Winner(s) Contract

If I, _____, win the title of Miss Outstanding Teen of Kaysville-Fruit Heights 2010, I agree to abide by the following rules. If I break any of these rules, I will be dismissed as Miss Outstanding Teen of Kaysville-Fruit Heights 2010 and my first attendant will take over the duties and responsibilities.

First, I will compete in the Miss Outstanding Teen of Utah pageant and fulfill all obligations related to this commitment. Specifically, I will have my wardrobe for the pageant and all pageant-related paperwork, including platform statement and resume, approved by the pageant director.

Second, the scholarship, in the amount of $200 for Miss Outstanding Teen of Kaysville-Fruit Heights 2010, will not be awarded until my year as the titleholder is over. This rule also applies to scholarship monies used by the first attendant ($100) and second attendant ($50). If I win either of those titles, I will abide by these scholarship guidelines as well.

Third, if I do anything to besmirch the name of the pageant during my year as Miss Outstanding Teen of Kaysville-Fruit Heights 2010 or as first or second attendant, I will forfeit my scholarship money and the associated title. There are no exceptions to this rule. Such actions include immoral behavior, smoking, drinking, or becoming pregnant. I am also not to marry during the year.

Fourth, I agree to make appearances as the titleholder or an attendant. In order to receive my scholarship money, I must make several appearances, including the July 4 parade, the city's electric light parade, the Cool Cars and Cones event, and any other events deemed important by the pageant director.

I agree to all of the above conditions.
